Case No.: 21-cr-305 (JEB)

Exhibit #2001

STIPULATION OF THE PARTIES

The United States of America, by and through its attorney, the United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, and the defendant, Sara Carpenter, through her attorneys, agree and stipulate to the following:

Speech given by former President Donald J. Trump on January 6, 2021

On January 6, 2021, then President Donald J. Trump spoke at the "Stop the Steal" rally on The Ellipse. The speech began at 12:00 p.m. Approximately fifteen minutes into the speech former President Trump stated the following:

"Anyone you want, but I think right here, we're going to walk down to the Capitol, and we're going to cheer on our brave senators and congressmen and women, and we're probably not going to be cheering so much for some of them. Because you'll never take back our country with weakness. You have to show strength and you have to be strong. WE have come to demand that Congress do the right thing and only count the electors who have been lawfully slated, lawfully slated. I know that everyone here will soon be marching over to the Capitol building to peacefully and patriotically make your voices heard."
